This book is the piano part to accompany cello for Suzuki Cello volume 1. My son really enjoys having the piano play along when he practices as it adds a fun element to practice time. He asked me to buy this book so his brother can learn the piano parts - I was a bit hesitant as I was thinking it might be a bit too complex but it's not too bad. A few of the pieces have one or two sharps but most have none. There are a lot of repeated notes making the songs easier to learn. My eight year old has been able to master the songs (he has ~ 1 year of piano experience). My book included all the pages (another reviewer had issues with the last song being cut off.)

The content is great, but the very last page is missing--probably because in the hard copy it's printed on the inside of the back cover! Unlucky, because I'm trying to accompany a student on Minuet No. 2 and I only have half of the piano part. Disappointing. The rest are in great shape though, hence the 3 stars.

This e-book is not complete! It is missing 1 to 2 pages of accompaniment (specifically page 2 of the Bach minuet).

Music books are a little high priced, but these are good books for Suzuki cello method.

I have a 6 year old who has been taking violin lessons for 1.5 years and has now switched to cello. This method is simply amazing. Dont forget to get the accompanying CD. That teaches as well as they listen to it. I myself am not teaching my daughter, but a certified teacher is.

Great collection of pieces.

Can't go wrong with Suzuki
