This little bundle of goodness just arrived on my front door and I am smitten! The architecture and design is absolutely beautiful, and the photography is stunning. The spaces reflect a variety of design styles, yet there is a cohesiveness that makes each of the come together in a very unified way. There is a nice mix of colorful and neutral spaces, and each space flows gracefully into the next. Great inspiration for anyone interested in home decoration, or for anyone interested in art and travel. I also really appreciated that it was not obvious at-first-glance where the interior was located. A validation that good design is very universal! I do not own Volume 1 of this book, but I will be adding it to my list. Another beautiful book by Taschen.

Beautiful interiors. An amazing book when you're in the process of furnishing your brand new home and you change your concept every 2 days :)

Great book.
