I really love the music for this show. The arrangements for the vocal selections are very well written and the keys are accurate to the original score. This is a good vocal selection sheet music booklet.

It's a great book with most of the songs and in duet form, it is missing a couple songs I was expecting to have, mainly, "lies" because it's on my cd but now I can't remember if that one was in the movie

Loved the movie this was based on and wanted to own the music for auditions, etc. Most of the songs have the guitar tabs as well as the piano music but I can't play guitar so I'm not sure how well these songs will work for me. I have yet to see the stage production, but I'm guessing the Guy's songs work better with guitar than piano.

One of my favorite books of sheet music! Falling Slowly especially sounds amazing, both on piano and guitar. Wish some of the purely instrumental songs had been included (It Cannot Be About That, particularly), but otherwise this is a great book. I go back to it frequently when playing and will probably use it to the point of it falling apart!

I recently saw this musical and thought it would be great to learn some of the songs... I wasn't thrilled with the idea of spending the amount asked at the actual show (at the time, my piano was out of commission). After I fixed my keyboard, I decided to just purchase the music and found that it was much cheaper here. It's exactly as expected and at a great price too!

The sheet music matches the arrangements in the musical and are relatively easy to play. I'm very satisfied with my purchase. The book came a little wrinkled, but that probably just happened in transit.

Fantastic book. The voicings are spot on. I've been wanting to learn these songs for years. Heads up: It is missing two of the songs (not including instrumental songs) from the soundtrack: "Ej Pada Pada Roskicka" and "Abandoned in Bandon"

If you loved the movie as I did and you play guitar, this is a must. Kind of need the CD to help with the melodies.
